

SOLicism is a living ethos — a way of being, a spiritual ecology, and a covenant with the divine within and all around.

* The Living Tenets of SOLicism:

- 1. Y I remain rooted in peace, regardless of external circumstances.
- 2. 🕸 I honor my body, mind, and spirit as sacred vessels of life.
- 3. 🌻 I notice beauty in the ordinary, and welcome its quiet teachings.
- 4. W I speak only what aligns with my truth and desired reality.
- 5. T trust that what is meant for me flows easily and finds me.
- 6. 🜬 I pause often, breathing deeply into presence and remembering who I am.
- 7. I move with grace, even when no one is watching, knowing my soul witnesses all.
- 8. * I allow joy to visit me in unexpected and miraculous ways.

Invocation:

→ I walk in SOLicism — the way of light and love — where peace is my ground, presence is my prayer, and joy is my birthright.
